

Explore the world through books this summer!

Books allow us to read, explore, and discover amazing places both near and far... Whether set in the vastness of China, diverse New York City, or history-rich Egypt, reading can take you everywhere!